

FESTIVAL OF GEOLOGY ROCKWATCH CHALLENGE 2020

PASSPORT

Angela Marmont Centre: What shark is only known by its teeth but is thought to be the largest predatory shark that ever lived?

.....

Essex Rock and Mineral Society: What would you find if you dug down 300 metres into Essex?

.....

GA Archives: Where did Thomas William Reader visit on 2nd April 1910?

.....

GeoBus: What is the name of the liquid layer that can be found in Earth's deep interior?

.....

Hertfordshire Geological Society: What was the name of the school teacher who discovered the ammonites at the Hill End Chalk Pit in the 1920's?

.....

Lion Salt Works: What is boiled in the large open pans at the Lion Salt Works?

.....

Lapworth Museum: The Dudley Bug is a type of ...

.....

Lothian and Borders GeoConservation: James Hutton, the founder of modern geology, visited Siccar Point in 1788. How did he get there?

.....

Mineralogical Society: What countries appear in the map published with the Society's press release about climate change?

.....

Queckett: Where do the fossil diatoms come from in the Photo of the Month?

.....

School Rocks: Metamorphic rocks are formed when rocks are altered by intense and

The Rock Gallery: On the Rock Gallery website there is a photograph of a piece of the oldest known rock on Earth. What is it called?

.....

Rockwatch: Where were pancake rocks discovered?

.....

STEP 1: You will find thirteen questions all across the virtual Festival of Geology website and on this passport. Find and answer ten questions, making sure to record your answers in this passport.

STEP 2: Simply fill in the online entry form or take a picture of your completed passport and email it to HELLO@ROCKWATCH.ORG.UK.

STEP 3: We will get in touch to confirm your entry and post you your woven challenge badge!

